

Writing Task

Hello, my name is Yan F. Jimenez and I was born on February 26, 2001. Since I was little, I was very sociable and talkative person. A person with unique aspects such as kindness, honesty, respect, among others. Thanks to these aspects that have taught me at home, I have succeeded in what I set out to do. Apart from these positive aspects, always one has something negative. These are what make a person's mood change in a negative way, such anger, despair, among others. All people suffer from a great majority of these aspects and they look well marked most of the time. On the other hand, these aspects have a great influence on communication with the people. I am one of those people who always likes to be talking about interesting topics. I am a person who evolves in a fast way when talking about a topic. It cannot be denied that there are times when one is afraid to speak to someone but in my case, it is rare. I hope that this paragraph has been able to describe a crazy person as I am, and how I spend myself talking in society.
